

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is the best of all medicines for the cure of diseases, disorders and weaknesses peculiar to women. It is the only preparation of its kind devised by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system. THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants.

THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle-wrapper and attest to the truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who hasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine of known composition. No counterfeits as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. Such a man is not to be trusted. He is trifling with your most priceless possession—your health—may be your life itself. See that you get what you ask for.

How to Cure a Cold.

Ye as careful as you can, you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has been established by reputation and that has been in use for a long time. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world-wide reputation by its remarkable cures of the most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts upon nature's plan, relieves the lungs, and expels the mucus, and is certain to please anyone suffering from that disease. Sold by Whitwell Drug Co.

A large automobile, en route from Atlanta to Nashville, passed through here Sunday, but the rain which anticipated its arrival by ten minutes made the road so slippery that it had to be hauled to the top of the mountain by Jack Martin's double team of mules. The motorist said that his car had been sent this way in the interest of the Government's proposed plan of building auto roads through the country.

Tickling in the Throat

"Just a little tickling in the throat!" Is that what troubles you? But it hangs on! Can't get rid of it! Home remedies don't take hold. You need something stronger—a regular medicine, a doctor's medicine. Ayer's Cherry Cough Syrup contains healing, quieting and soothing properties of the highest order. Ask your doctor about this. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Coughing positively prevents good health. Then why allow it to continue? An active throat is a preventive of disease. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. What does your doctor say?

not discern that the kingdom has an earthly human phase as well as a heavenly spiritual phase.

The very opposite of this obtained at the first advent. The Jews expected an earthly kingdom but could not discern the heavenly one. This is designated a "mystery", and the natural man cannot understand it, but through no fault of his own. Because, as Jesus said, "No man can come to me (now) except the Father draw him." "Of his own will begat he us." "No man taketh this honor unto himself."

The fact is, only the spirit-begotten ones of this Gospel age will ever be born, i. e., experience a change of nature from human to spiritual. These only will ever occupy this exalted position from among men. And these are pointedly brought to our attention as a "little flock", who are figuratively termed the "Lamb's wife", the 144,000. These are the spiritual seed of Abraham, of whom it is written, "If ye be Christ's then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs (of the kingdom) according to the promise" made to Abraham, namely, "In thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed."—Gen. 22:15; Gal. 3:8, 29. These are married to the Lamb (Rev. 19:7, 8, 9.) and are in the throne. Then we have a "great multitude" who are invited to the marriage feast. These have "palms" and are before the throne.

These two classes, we apprehend, will be the spiritual ministers and agents, under the King, from and by whom the blessings, the opportunity for life eternal will flow to the world then on trial. These during this age, the time of their trial, have been drawn by the Father: the one into complete consecration and separation from the world, and typified apply by Rebecca (Isaac's wife), the "Lord's goat" and the Aaronic under-priests. The other great company class consecrate also but they sacrifice unwillingly. They look back at the human nature sacrificed, and seek the things which belong to this instead of "setting their affections on things above." Yet they do not deny the Lord and draw back to second death, but they lose the prize of joint heirship in the throne. Instead of becoming the Lamb's wife, they become her assistants on a lower, yet a grand plane. These are typified by Rebekah's "nurse", the "scape-goat", the Levites, etc., and are well represented by the foolish virgins of the parable.

All others who obtain to eternal life will do so as perfect human beings with perfect human bodies. The faithful worthies of the past who have had their trial and brought to our attention in Heb. 11 will be raised perfect human beings and will be the "princes", the earthly representatives of the heavenly spiritual kingdom. That these do not belong to the spiritual class of this gospel age is shown by Heb. 11:40 and Ps. 45:16. John the Baptist and forerunner belongs to this class, as our Lord said of him, "The least in the kingdom of heaven (the powers of spiritual control) is greater than he." The prophets are profuse in their pen pictures of this earthly phase of the kingdom, as the following sample quotations will attest: "Rejoice ye with Jerusalem and be glad with her * * * that ye may be delighted with the abundance of her glory: for, saith the Lord, Behold I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream." "At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the Lord and all nations shall be gathered unto it." "And many people shall go and say, come ye, and let us go up to the mountain (kingdom) of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths; for out of Zion (the spiritual phase) shall go forth the law and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem"—the earthly phase.—Isa. 52:9; 65:18; 66:10-12; Jer. 3:17; Isa. 2:3.

Under this great kingdom all the dead of the second resurrection will come forth. All who have not had their trial for life eternal will be granted one under the most auspicious conditions. As the Father is drawing a few to Jesus now (John 6:43) for purposes of consecration and sacrifice, Jesus will then draw all men to him as he said, "If I be lifted up, I will draw all men unto me. It will then be up to them to obey and live—to love the Lord their God with all their hearts, mind, soul and strength, and their neighbor as themselves. And under supervision of the great King, and by the aid of a perfectly organized government under the control of perfect human beings, such as was Adam, and Jesus, in the flesh, the restored millions will have every encouragement. Unlike the trial of the Church now, when she must suffer for righteousness sake to attest her loyalty, then righteousness will be rewarded. Then "the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it." "But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it."—Pro. 2:21, 22.

That all who are saved will not go to heaven as spirit beings is shown by the above words of inspiration. That this earth is designed to be the home of the perfected human race is an established fact—it is established in holy writ and brought to light now in the due time. The Scriptures positively declare that this earth will be the home and heaven for all who obey the laws of the kingdom for all eternity. Hear them, "The heavens are the Lord's, but the earth he hath given to the children of men." For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens: God himself that formed the earth and made it: He hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited." "The righteous shall inherit the land and dwell therein forever." "They shall build houses and inhabit them." "They shall not build and another inhabit." "They shall not plant and another eat." "They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for trouble." "And it shall come to pass that before they call I will answer; and while they are yet speaking I will hear." "The wolf shall lie down with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; * * * and a little child shall lead them." "They shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end." Then for this we pray, "Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven." The above Scriptures surely apply to human beings, because spirit beings have no use for land and houses.

While we Christians work out our own salvation with fear and rejoice in our hope for a share in the Kingdom, we also rejoice that the poor world is to have a grand portion—the restoration of all that Adam lost—the dominion of earth, with perfection of human nature, and eternal life as Adam had it originally.

The false teaching that the earth is to be burned up has caused this important human phase of the kingdom to be lost sight of. "The earth (the globe) abides forever." But ages and dispensations called world's come to an end when their work is finished. Thus one world or order ended at the flood, but the globe remains as a basis for worlds without end.

In future we may devote an article to the epochs, ages and periods of time called in scripture a "Plan of the Ages." Because in this plan is hidden all our hopes—the Church's hope, the Jew's hope, and the world's hope. In our next we will show that the people of Sodom and Gomorrah, Tyre and Sidon, are to be restored to life and being in the judgement, and that it will be "more tolerable" for them than for some who had more light.

The Editor's comments suggest other thoughts but I must close by hoping for the best for the News and its readers.

Women Suffer Agonies from Diseased Kidneys

And Most Women Do This Not Knowing the Real Cause of their Condition

These poor, suffering women have been led to believe that their misery of mind and body is entirely due to "ills of their sex." Usually the kidneys and bladder are responsible—or largely so. And in such cases, the kidneys and bladder are the organs, that need and must have attention.

Those torturing, enervating sick headaches, dragging pains in back, groin and limbs, bloating and swelling of the extremities, extreme nervousness or hysteria, listlessness and constant tired, worn-out feeling—are almost certain symptoms of disordered and diseased kidneys, bladder and liver.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills have, in thousands of cases, been demonstrated as remarkably beneficial in all such conditions of female organism—affording the most prompt relief and permanent benefit.

As an illustration of what these Pills will do, Mrs. P. M. Bray of Columbus, Ga., writes that she was very ill with kidney trouble, and that she is now well—and that these Pills were what cured her. They are very pleasant to take, and can in no case, produce any deleterious effects upon the system—as syrupy, alcoholic, liquid preparations are apt to do.

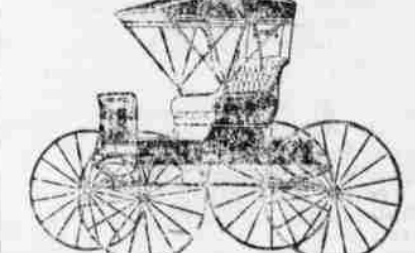

For sale by Whitwell Drug Co., Whitwell, and J. W. Simpson, Jasper.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill., want every man and woman who have the least suspicion that they are afflicted with kidney and bladder diseases to at once write to them and a trial box of these Pills will be sent free by return mail. Do it today.
